

Student Name: _____ Date: _____

Four-Square Organizer

Use the squares below to organize your essay or story.

The diagram is a large square divided into four quadrants by a vertical and a horizontal line. In the center of this large square, there is a smaller square. The four corners of the large square are empty, and the central square is also empty, providing a space for organizing an essay or story.